ROTARY

AUTUMN WINTER 2019

Next year symbolises an important milestone for Rotary Watches as it approaches its 125 year birthday. Ahead of this momentous occasion, Rotary has delved into its past to bring together a celebration of heritage and iconic design. Spanning across delicate timepieces that sparkle and shine, to rugged models that deliver a stylish way for you to become your best self, this season's collection is a testament to the worldwide reputation of Rotary Watches for its watch making excellence and its determination to always deliver unparalleled quality timepieces at an exceptional price. It is no wonder, that they were recently awarded Watch Brand of the Year at the Retail Jeweller UK Jewellery Awards 2019.

Cambridge is known as the Flagship family due to its extraordinary design and the latest models for Autumn/Winter 2019 are no exception. With six new additions, this seasons Cambridge family features three timepieces that capture the spirit of the original Cambridge design and three chronograph models that deliver a sportier aesthetic to the traditional collection.

The complex artistry of the skeletal Greenwich family, with stunning exposed automatic movement, has quickly become an iconic staple for Rotary Watches. This season Rotary's Skeleton offering has evolved, maintaining the core DNA of Greenwich, but incorporating a stunning shaped 'cage' structure which creates additional space and light surrounding the self-winding movement. Each 'strut' feature within acts as an index and is topped with a luminescent hour marker: ensuring this timepiece is the ultimate blend of functionality and style. Each timepiece is limited to 300 pieces.

Henley is renowned for its ability to seamlessly blend sportsmanship quality with impeccable style. For Autumn/Winter 2019, Henley is gaining four new Chronograph timepieces, making this the perfect collection for the avid timekeeper or sporting enthusiast. Featuring a rotating slide rule, Chronograph functions and luminous hour markers and hands, these AW19 additions perfectly encapsulate Henley's legacy as a dynamic and robust collection.
